SP Commander Is Runner-Up For National Award

KIRTLAND AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. — Lt. Col. Mary K. Hertog, commander of the 377th Security Police Squadron, was selected as a finalist recently for the Doris R. McCrosson Manager Award by the Interagency Committee of Women in Federal Law Enforcement (ICWIFLE).

The award is presented annually by the ICWIFLE, which is jointly sponsored by the Department of Justice and the Department of the Treasury.

The ICWIFLE's objective is to bestow recognition on a manager who has displayed the commitment and willingness to enhance and promote women in federal law enforcement. Competition for this award is open to all managers and supervisors having law enforcement responsibilities within the federal government. Hertog was selected as a finalist from 14 candidates representing 11 federal law enforcement agencies.

This year's award was presented to Brig. Gen. Robert A. Hoffman, commander of the Air Force of Special Investigations. Hertog was runner-up to Hoffman who was presented the award June 20 in Washington, D.C.
